press release
SUMMER/FALL 2012

“This is what rock and roll music will sound like in Heaven!”

—Garry Jones, President of Full Sail University

ANNOUNCING: The RockNRoll Chorus is expanding! Due to overwhelming interest, The RockNRoll Chorus will be announcing auditions for expanded casts in North Jersey and South Jersey for talented high school-aged singers who want to improve their vocal and performance skills - and have a chance to audition for next year’s RockNRoll Chorus NATIONAL TOUR CAST! More information can be found at www.rocknrollchorus.com and www.facebook.com/rocknrollchorus about auditions, schedules, features and benefits for these casting opportunities.

BRAND NEW CD: The RockNRoll Chorus will be releasing their fifth full-length album in as many years. With a focus on new ways of experiencing these great classic songs, “LISTEN LIKE THIS” will remind us all of how we used to truly “listen” to music we loved! Due out in retail outlets on August 11th, get ready for “LISTEN LIKE THIS!”

SUMMER TOUR 2012: You’ll swear there’s a band, but this talented group delivers all of your favorites, with a new edge. New Jersey-based vocal band, The RockNRoll Chorus (RNRC), is gearing up for their 2012 Summer Tour which includes shows in Nashville, Cleveland, Orlando, Charleston, Wilmington, Baltimore, Atlantic City, Washington D.C., New York, and of course, The Jersey Shore. Directed by Joe Cantaffa, and coached by Fredi Walker-Browne (RENT, The Lion King), Eric Thompson, Mary Huhmann, Jessica Pomeroy, Jon Harkel, Jessica Totaro and Security Director Gary Schiavone (Bruce Springsteen, So You Think You Can Dance, Crosby Stills & Nash, Light Of Day) and many other talented staff, these young professionals perform a high energy, full-tilt rock show with a focus on healthy vocal technique and high production values. The cast and student staff/crew learn the ropes of the music business, touring, production, and recording along the way. Webisodes that follow their amazing journey can be found on The RockNRoll Chorus’ YouTube channel. The RockNRoll Chorus—no instruments, just voices.
